

Enfield Manor Mailing List

Enfield Manor is an affordable housing property located in Enfield, Connecticut. It contains a variety of affordable housing opportunities for elderly and non-elderly disabled households. Thirty (30) of the units are subsidized under the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development's (HUD) Section 202 Housing Program for the Elderly (Section 202).

These units are available to income eligible households with a head of household over 62. The current income limits are $ 45,250 for a one-person household and $ 51,700 for a two-person household.

The property currently consists of one three-story elevator building. All units are one-bedroom with central HVAC, modern kitchens, and a variety of other amenities including showers without tub walls. The site is located on a large site with parking and accessible walkways giving easy access to public transportation which goes directly to major shopping opportunities.
